For Your Convenience

Parking & Shuttle Bus Info

As there is very limited parking at CRJ we are asking that you park at Home Depot located on the corner of Lee Road and I-4.

There will be Deputies staffed there all day to assist you.

Round trip shuttle transportation will be provided to and from Home Depot and the Temple during all services for your convenience.

There will be no Handicapped Parking passes issued by CRJ. Instead, the Deputies will allow those with a State of Florida Handicapped Parking Permit to park on campus if space is available.

Please remember that there is limited street parking available around the Temple. Make note of “No Parking” signs around the neighborhood to avoid ticketing. Finally, please respect our neighbors! Try to avoid lawns and driveways when parking on neighborhood streets.

Prayer Book Information

Please remember to bring your RED GATES OF REPENTANCE Prayer Book for the High Holy Day Services. CRJ has a limited number of books to loan. Each person borrowing a book will be asked to leave a driver’s license for each copy of the book.

Own your own copy! Books are available to purchase from the Temple Office for $35 each. Please call ahead 407-645-0444 to arrange for pick up.

We Care About Your Safety

As safety and security is a high priority at CRJ, please take note of the following:

- Orange County Deputies are on duty inside and outside of the building during all services.
- We prefer that women not bring purses/handbags to Temple, as all bags are subject to search.
- Our Deputies are here to help us ensure a safe and secure day. Please follow their instructions and thank them for their service to our congregation.

Enhance Your Holiday Meal

Rabbi Engel and Cantor Rawiszer have prepared a booklet of blessings and prayers that can be read at home during Erev Rosh Hashanah and Erev Yom Kippur. Copies are available both online www.crjorlando.org or by contacting the office for a hardcopy at 407-645-0444.

In Jewish tradition one is to visit the cemetery between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. This is a reminder that the introspection that we are required to do cannot be accomplished without looking back upon those who have had an effect on determining who we are.

Your family and friends are invited to join us for the annual “Kever Avot” Service in the Congregation of Reform Judaism Cemetery at Woodlawn Memorial Park. Rabbi Steven Engel and Cantor Jacqueline Rawiszer will conduct the service.

“May their memories be blessings”

High Holy Days at CRJ

Selichot - this service with its mystical overtones usually occurs the Saturday night immediately preceding Rosh Hashanah. It is intended to prepare us for the self-evaluation and reflection that we will be required to be engaged in during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. The Hebrew word selichot means forgiveness.

Family Service - a less formal worship experience on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur where children and parents participate together. The liturgy is creative and the music will be geared toward children.

Tashlich - from the Hebrew meaning to "cast away." A ceremony of prayer and music and of symbolically casting away ones' sins into running water.

Shabbat Shuvah - the Shabbat between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. The liturgy includes special readings for the High Holy Days.

Kever Avot (Memorial Service at CRJ Cemetery) - in Jewish tradition one visits the cemetery between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Those who came before us have had a significant impact on who we are, and therefore, we remember them at this time when Judaism requires us to be introspective.

Yom Kippur Discussion - an interactive and participatory discussion on a theme related to the High Holy Days.

Yom Kippur Meditation Service - a participatory and less formal Service where readings and prayers are read aloud by congregants. Special musical accompaniment with a harp is part of this intimate service of turning inward.

Yom Kippur Yizkor - the traditional memorial service is intended for those who have experienced a death in their family. Our CRJ Yizkor prayer book is used and congregants may memorialize loved ones through The Book of Remembrance.

Yom Kippur Healing Service - a time for personal reflection focusing on Jewish prayers, liturgy and readings related to healing and wholeness. A special prayer book is provided to allow congregants to reflect upon these themes and the teachings of the High Holy Days. Special music and blessings will provide an atmosphere for this reflective time.

Yom Kippur Neilah - taken from the Hebrew meaning to "close or lock." This is the concluding Service of Yom Kippur where the final blast of the shofar is sounded and the fast is broken.
